INCLUSIONS AND EXCLUSIONS
– CROSSING BORDERS OF THE WELFARE STATE

Wednesday 11 May 2011, 1-6 pm, Swedish School of Social Science, Helsinki

The Nordic Ph.D.-student Network for Research on Immigration, Integration & Welfare (WelMi) invites you to join four public lectures by established international scholars on the relationship between the Nordic Welfare States and immigration at the Swedish School of Social Science (Snellmansgatan 12, Helsingfors) Lecture hall, 11 May 2011, 1–6 pm. The event is organized in cooperation with the NCoE NordWel and the Swedish School of Social Science.

13.00	WELCOMING WORDS Prof. Pauli Kettunen, University of Helsinki
13.15	IMMIGRATION POLICY: CONTRADICTIONS, CONTINUITY AND EXCLUSION Prof. Rosemary Sales, Middlesex University Commentary by Adjunct Prof. Pasi Saukkonen, University of Helsinki
14.15	WHEN RIGHTS DISAPPEAR: EU MIGRATION POLICY IN A POST-SOCIAL EUROPE Associate Prof. Peo Hansen, Linköping University Commentary by Prof. Sirpa Wrede, University of Helsinki
15.15	Coffee break
15.45	GENDER EQUALITY AND THE NORDIC WELFARE STATES: ACTORS, DYNAMICS AND INSTITUTIONS Prof. Anette Borchorst, Aalborg University Commentary by Adjunct Prof. Suvi Keskinen, University of Turku
16.45	ETHNIC ORGANISATION AND POLITICAL INTEGRATION Prof. Bo Bengtsson, Uppsala University Commentary by Adjunct Prof. Aino Saarinen, University of Helsinki
17.45	CLOSING OF THE EVENT Prof. Pauli Kettunen, University of Helsinki

For additional information, please contact WelMi coordinator Saara Pellander, saara.pellander@helsinki.fi
PLEASE NOTE: The programme is open to all and does not require registration. However, we ask that you please inform WelMi coordinator Saara Pellander by Friday 6.5. if you plan to be present at the coffee break, so that the appropriate amount of refreshments can be reserved.