Oxford-Helsinki Study Bursary 2018-19

The Europaeum is once again making a stipend available to support a Helsinki graduate student to undertake a period of research study at the University of Oxford, during the coming academic year.

The Oxford-Helsinki Bursary Scheme will award one Helsinki graduate €1,700 to spend up to one month doing research integral to their degree studies in Oxford, and vice versa for a graduate from Oxford coming to Helsinki. The scheme is intended to ensure graduates can cover travel, accommodation and other related costs during their study period. Study can include periods of specialist library or archive work; supervisions with desired tutors; taught programmes, or field work, including work with organisations based in and around Helsinki/Oxford. Students need to be enrolled on their current degree programme at the point of embarking on the trip and the starting date for the trip should be no later than 1st September 2019.

Bursary holders are expected to be self-directed, and will need to negotiate their own study arrangements. Advice and support can be obtained by contacting the Europaeum Office in Oxford (euroinfo@europaeum.ox.ac.uk), or Dr Juhana Aunesluoma juhana.aunesluoma@helsinki.fi

The Helsinki deadline for applications will be the 3rd December 2018
