

KE-40.6000 Biofuels (5 ECTS)

Organizer	Aalto University School of Chemical Technology Industrial Chemistry Research group
Date and place	March 28 – April 1, 2011  Aalto University, Dipoli congress center
Language	English
Course description	A one-week intensive course. The course gives an overview of the present state of the art in the conversion of biomass into various fuels: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The global environment and EU directives</li><li>• Various raw materials and conversion processes as well as examples of operational or designed commercial-size processes</li><li>• The properties of biofuels and their applications and comparison with the conventional fuels</li></ul>
Further information and registration	Course supervisor: Prof. Outi Krause For registration and more information please contact: Dr. Juha Linnekoski Juha.Linnekoski@tkk.fi NOTE! Students of Finnish Universities: Please, fill in also the JOO-application (www.joopas.fi)