

Workshop

Within the framework of the key area MIS – Multilingualism and Intercultural Studies

Interculturality as a transdisciplinary concept Approaches – Applications – Desiderata

5 November 2014, 9:00 am-5:30 pm, University of Luxembourg, Campus Walferdange, Room 1.09 (XII)

Program

09:00-09:30 – Reception of the participants

09:30-10:00 – Welcome and Introduction

Georg Mein (Dean of the FLSHASE, Luxembourg)

Dieter Heimböckel (Speaker of MIS, Luxembourg)

10:00-10:50 – Anil Bhatti (Nehru University/New Dehli)

Ähnlichkeit und Differenz in einer Migrationswelt. Aspekte von Kulturproduktion und Kulturtheorie heute.

Chair: Heinz Sieburg (Luxembourg)

10:50-11:10 – Coffee break

11:10-12:00 – Mike Byram (Durham University)

Competence-based approach(es) to Interculturality in Education and Criticality

Chair: Jeanne E. Glesener (Luxembourg)

12:15-13:45 – Common lunch

Restaurant Moris (1 Place des Martyrs, Walferdange)

14:00-14:50 – Johannes Meyer-Hamme (University of Paderborn)

Diversity of histories. Historical thinking skills in intercultural perspective

Chair: Andreas Fickers (Luxembourg)

14:50-15:40 – Fred Dervin (University of Helsinki)

Interculturality beyond culture: Does it make sense?

Chair: Agnès Prüm (Luxembourg)

15:40-16:00 – Coffee break

16:00-16:50 – Manfred Weinberg (Charles University in Prague)

Interkulturalität als Projekt

Chair: Andrea Binsfeld (Luxembourg)

16:50-17:30 – Final discussion: Interculturality as a transdisciplinary concept

Chair: Adelheid Hu (Luxembourg) and Dieter Heimböckel (Luxembourg)