News/Events:

1) Finnish Society for Sciences and Letters: Call for grants for Ukrainian researchers in Finland

The Finnish Society of Sciences and Letters opens a call for grants for Ukrainian researchers in Finland

Grants can be awarded to Ukrainian citizens in Finland or Finnish researchers for inviting Ukrainian citizens to carry out research work in Finland. The taxfree grants can be used for travel costs and costs for living up to 2040 € per month. The applications including a research plan, a schedule, the researchers CV and a budget, should be sent to <societas@scientiarum.fi>. The applications are handled in the order they are submitted.

The grants can be applied for as long as the war continues. The board of the Society will later decide about when this grant program will end.

More information is given by the Permanent Secretary of the Society, professor Mats Gyllenberg secretarius@scientiarum.fi

3) Russian Law Talks

Russian Law Talks will continue this month. Stay up to date on our Talks here.

Aiming to provide introductory information of these changes, discuss their impact in depth, provide an analysis of law and its influence on society, politics, economics and environment, the Development of Russian Law program continues the Russian Law Talks. Every month, we will invite experts and scholars from various disciplines and sectors to discuss the most important and current events in Russian Legal life.

We are looking for experts and scholars from a variety of disciplines and new current topics to discuss. If you are interested in becoming a speaker, please register your topic and abstract of your idea here. We look forward to more important and fruitful discussions!

Call for Papers:

4) Call for Articles: ELTE Law Journal

The Editorial Board of the ELTE Law Journal invites authors to submit their articles for publication in the journal. Research articles and case notes exploring contemporary, practical issues in the field of private law, criminal law, constitutional and administrative law, international law and European law are welcome. We have a strong preference for submissions with a comparative approach and for articles exploring legal issues from the perspective of European law or international law.

The deadline for submissions to the next issue is 15 May 2022. Please note, however, the Editorial Board continuously accepts submissions to the subsequent issues.

Articles can be sent to the following email address: eltelawjournal@ajk.elte.hu

The Editorial Board gives preference to high-quality submissions that shed new light on the subject and may have lasting scholarly significance. Articles must comply with the ELTE Law Journal Submission Guide. All articles are subject to peer review before they are accepted for publication.

The ELTE Law Journal is one of the leading law reviews in Hungary. The journal is published by ELTE Eötvös Press, the publisher of the ELTE Eötvös Loránd University (Budapest). The journal is available both in printed and electronic form. All articles can be accessed online free of charge via the ELTE Law Journal website. The Editorial Board is committed to publish articles that raise the interest of the international academic community.

5) Call for Submissions: Cambridge Law Review

The Cambridge Law Review journal is now inviting submissions for Volume VII, Issue 2 of the Cambridge Law Review (CLR) and Volume V, Issue 2 of its supplementary undergraduate law journal, De Lege Ferenda (DLF).

The CLR and DLF are independent legal publications run by students of the University of Cambridge. For more information about the CLR and the DLF, kindly visit <https://www.cambridgelawreview.org>. In past volumes, published submissions have typically been made by postgraduate students and early career academics or professionals.

Call for Submissions

The deadline for submissions is 15 June 2022. Persons interested in submitting an article for publication to the CLR or the DLF are required to fill in the relevant online form:

CLR: <https://www.cambridgelawreview.org/submit>

DLF: <https://www.cambridgelawreview.org/delegeferenda-submit>

The attached document contains the requisite information, such as the criteria for submissions, the review process and the expected date of publication.

6) LERU Doctoral Summer School 2022, 3-8 July, Utrecht University

LERU Doctoral Summer School, 3-8 July 2022, Utrecht University

The University of the Future, Rethinking the role of universities worldwide in the face of the challenges of the 21st century.

The 12th LERU Doctoral Summer School will be held at the Utrecht University from 3 July until 8 July 2022.

What is the LERU Doctoral Summer School?

The University of Helsinki is a member of the League of European Research Universities (LERU), an association of 23 leading research-intensive universities that share the values of high-quality teaching within an environment of internationally competitive research. Each year, LERU organizes a Doctoral Summer School on a specific topic. All member universities of LERU are invited to send one doctoral candidate to participate in the meeting.

Theme and objectives of the 2022 LERU Doctoral Summer School

The theme of the 2022 LERU Doctoral Summer School is "The University of the Future, Rethinking the role of universities worldwide in the face of the challenges of the 21st century."

A group of selected PhD students from LERU members and a number of UU partner universities will get together for a week to listen to inspiring speakers and to work on a Manifest. The formula of this Summer School is such that relatively much time is reserved for participants to deliberate and brainstorm, to write their appeal in stages throughout the week.

Who can apply?

Doctoral candidates from all disciplines are encouraged to apply. Candidates should be in an advanced stage of the doctoral program and be highly motivated to work intensively on this project in an international and interdisciplinary team. The participants should be available for the entire duration of the summer school and participate in all events. The days will be full and long. Candidates must be very motivated to work on the topic of the summer school and prepared to participate in all activities in the programme. All lectures, hands-on events and discussions will be in English, so proficiency in English is a prerequisite.

Selection process

Each LERU university conducts its own selection procedure and provides a list of ranked candidates to LERU Office. The first-ranked candidate from each university is automatically accepted. Second places (and any further places, based on availability) are decided by the local organisers after consideration of all applications, aiming to achieve a balanced representation with regard to disciplines, gender and university affiliation with due consideration of rank order and merit.

Participation fee

The summer course will be delivered on-site. Should that not be possible, the event will be moved to an entirely online format.

The participation fee (including accommodation) and travel expenses (Economy) of the selected participants from the University of Helsinki are covered by the Doctoral Schools.

Please submit your application by 27 March by filling in the electronic form and include your cv as an attachment.

The University of Helsinki candidates will be selected and sent out for consideration by the LERU Office by 31 March 2022.

7) Open Application: Postdoctoral Researcher Examining Human Rights Due Diligence For Indigenous Peoples

for a two-year, full-time, fixed-term period starting from 1 June 2022 at the latest.

to contribute to the project Just sustainabilities: Defining Due Diligence for the Rights of Indigenous peoples, led by Assistant Professor Dorothee Cambou. Focusing on the impacts of wind energy projects in Finland and Sweden, the project aims to define the role of the law to ensure corporate respect for the rights of indigenous peoples and promote a just transition. For this purpose, this research project makes a socio-legal analysis about the state of the law in the Nordic countries and its influence to regulate corporate Human Rights Due Diligence in relation with the rights of indigenous peoples. Socio-legal methods with qualitative research best characterize the approach of the project. We highly encourage applicants with linkages to these themes and an interest in business and human rights to apply.

APPLICATION CRITERIA

Applicants must hold a doctoral degree in a field that is relevant to the research topic and have a high-quality research proposal. Moreover, he or she is expected to have the ability to conduct independent scientific research and possess the teaching skills required for the position. The aim of the position is to encourage the appointee to further their skills and gain more experience to prepare them for an academic career.

An appointee must be able to provide a clear contribution to the theme of the Project. To fulfil the research requirements of the position, the applicant chosen is awaited to reside in Finland while employed by the University of Helsinki, and actively to participate in the research and teaching activities of the Project and the Faculty.

WHAT WE OFFER

We are an equal opportunity employer and offer an attractive and diverse workplace in an inspiring environment with a variety of development opportunities and benefits. The annual gross salary range will be approx. 41,000 – 50,000 euros, depending on the appointee's qualifications and experience. In addition, University of Helsinki offers comprehensive services to its employees, including occupational health care and opportunities for professional development. Further information at www.helsinki.fi/en/about-us/careers. The employment contract will include a probationary period of six months.

HOW TO APPLY

Please submit your application through the University of Helsinki Recruitment System via the link Apply for job. Applicants who are employees of the University of Helsinki are requested to submit their application via the SAP HR portal. Following enclosures must be attached as single pdf-file to the application:

1. A curriculum vitae (max 2 pages).
2. A numbered list of publications, on which the applicant has marked in bold her or his five key publications to be considered during the review (please do not send copies of the publications themselves).
3. A research plan not exceeding two (2) pages including a statement outlining how the proposed topic fits the profile of the Project.
4. Contact information and recommendation from two referee.

9) Avoin työpaikka: Tutkija-koordinaattori CSD:n Demokratiatekijät-hankkeeseen

Valtiotieteellinen tiedekunta ja Sosiologisen demokratiatutkimuksen keskus (Centre for Sociology of Democracy, CSD) hakee

TUTKIJATOHTORIA TAI VIIMEISTELYVAIHEESSA OLEVAA VÄITÖSKIRJATUTKIJAA

määräaikaiseen työsuhteeseen 1.5.2022 – 30.4.2023 (tai sopimuksen mukaan).

Sosiologisen demokratiatutkimuksen keskus (Centre for Sociology of Democracy, CSD) hakee tutkijatohtoria tai viimeistelyvaiheessa oleva väitöskirjatutkijaa Demokratiatekijät-hankkeen tutkija-koordinaattoriksi. CSD on tutkijayhteisö, joka edistää tieteellistä tutkimusta ja sosiologista ymmärrystä demokratian ulottuvuuksista ja käytännön tasoista. CSD:n hankkeissa tehtävä tutkimus on sekä kansainvälisesti merkittävää että suomalaisen yhteiskunnan kanssa keskustelemaa ja sen tiedontarpeisiin pureutuvaa. CSD toimii Helsingin yliopistossa sosiologian tieteenalalla ja sitä johtavat professorit Eeva Luhtakallio ja Veikko Eranti.

Demokratiatekijät-hanke tähtää CSD:n nostamiseen demokratiatutkimuksen kansainväliselle huipulle ja kotimaassa tunnetuksi, pysyväksi ja kasvavaksi demokratia-asiantuntemuksen alustaksi. Hankkeessa tiivistetään CSD:n tutkijoiden ja tutkimusprojektien välistä yhteistyötä ja tuotetaan täysin uusia, yhteisölle yhteisiä tutkimuksen ja tutkimusviestinnän muotoja. Demokratiatekijöissä tieteellinen kompetenssi ja monitieteinen kansainvälinen verkottuneisuus yhdistyvät monialaiseen viestintäosaamiseen ja yhteiskunnallisiin verkostoihin, jotka yltyvät niin päätöksenteon, hallinnon, kansalaisaktiivisuuden, taiteen, nuorten toimijoiden kuin eri tavoin marginalisoitujen ihmisten pariin.

Haemme joukkoomme akateemisen maailman tuntevaa tutkija-koordinaattoria, joka tekee CSD:n teemoihin liittyvää tutkimusta sekä suunnittelee, tukee ja seuraa CSD:n strategiatyötä tiiviissä yhteistyössä CSD:n tutkijoiden kanssa. Tutkija-koordinaattorin vastuualueena ovat erityisesti Demokratiatekijät-hankkeen osa-alueet, joihin kuuluu muun muassa tiedeviestinnän suunnittelu ja toteutus, sidosryhmäviestintä, tapahtumien suunnittelu, CSD:n alaisten tutkimushankkeiden välisen yhteistyön kehittäminen, hankevalmistelun tuki, sisäiset koulutukset, verkostoyhteistyö sekä johtoryhmätyöskentely.

VALINTAKRITEERIT

Tutkijatohtorin tehtävään valittavalta edellytetään soveltuvaa tohtorin tutkintoa. Viimeistelyvaiheessa olevalla väitöskirjantekijällä on oltava jatko-opinto-oikeus HY:ssä ja hänen väitöstutkimuksensa on sovittava aiheeltaan CSD:n teemoihin.

Odotamme tutkija-koordinaattorilta näkemyksellistä ja itsenäistä otetta tutkimusyhteisön toiminnan kehittämiseen ja uusien toimintojen luomiseen ja toteutukseen. Poliittisen sosiologian kentän tuntemus katsotaan eduksi, minkä lisäksi toivomme, että tutkija-koordinaattorin oma tutkimus tai tutkimuksellinen kiinnostus liittyy CSD:n teemoihin. Työkielemmme ovat suomi ja englanti.

TARJOAMME

Tarjoamme innostuneen ja innostavan työyhteisön, jonka toiminta perustuu yhdessä tekemiseen ja avuliaisuuteen ja jolla on monipuoliset kansalliset ja kansainväliset yhteistyöverkostot sekä laaja asiantuntemus niin poliittisesta sosiologiasta, tutkimusmenetelmistä ja niiden yhdistelystä kuin rahoitushakujen ja julkaisemisen käytännön kysymyksistä. Hankkeeseen rekrytoidaan myös tutkimusavustaja tukemaan tutkija-koordinaattorin työtä.

Tutkijatohtorin bruttopalkka on 3 480 – 3900 €/kk riippuen tehtävään valittavan henkilön ansioista ja kokemuksesta.

Viimeistelyvaiheessa olevan väitöskirjatutkijan bruttopalkka on noin 3000 €/kk.

10) Call for 3 Doctoral Positions at the Bielefeld Graduate School in History and Sociology

Current announcement: 3 doctoral positions (65% TV-L E13)

As of 01 October 2022, the BGHS is awarding three doctoral positions (part-time 65%, salary according to remuneration level 13) in the fields of Sociology, Political Science, Social Anthropology and Didactics of Social Sciences, which are thematically represented in the Faculty of Sociology. The positions run for three years with the option of an extension for a year after successful evaluation.

The full text of the call for applications can be found here. Applications must be submitted in English by 30 April 2022 via the relevant link in the advertisement. Please also read the FAQs carefully, as you will find all important information on the application and the procedure there.

Required application documents:

Short profile (template)

Motivation letter (600 words max.) (guidelines)

Curriculum Vitae (1,000 words max.) (guidelines)

Project proposal (4,000 words max.) (guidelines)

University degree documents (BA degree certificate + BA transcript and MA degree certificate + MA transcript or a statement from your examination office that you have successfully completed your Master's studies. All your grades, including the grade for your Master's thesis, must be displayed in this statement.)

Please feel free to contact Dr. Sabine Schäfer for further questions (bghs@uni-bielefeld.de).

Review procedure: transparency and equal opportunity

The BGHS selects candidates for the advertised doctoral positions using its tried and tested gender- and diversity-friendly application procedure, which guarantees a transparent and fair process and strengthens the diversity of the BGHS community. The structured and partly anonymous procedure takes place in five steps:

1. Review of the application documents for completeness and thematic fit by the BGHS office,
2. Expert review of the anonymised project description according to uniform criteria by lecturers of the Faculty of Sociology or by external scholars,
3. Selection and invitation of applicants to a personal interview by the interdisciplinary selection committee on the basis of the project descriptions and reviews,
4. Conducting the interviews by the selection committee,
5. Decision on the allocation of the doctoral positions by the BGHS executive board.

Dates and deadlines

30 April 2022 – Deadline for applications

Mid of June 2022 – Invitations to personal interviews are sent out

End of June 2022 – Personal interviews

Mid of July 2022 – Candidates informed about the results

1 October 2022 – BGHS doctoral positions begin

11)Funded PhD opportunity: The Institute for Diplomacy and International Governance (IDIG) at Loughborough University Starting October 2022

The Institute for Diplomacy and International Governance (IDIG) at Loughborough University London, UK, is advertising a funded PhD opportunity for an October 2022 start.

The successful candidate will join the Institute for Diplomacy and International Governance (IDIG). We are looking for a proposal that will either further our current projects which span digital diplomacy, post-Brexit and bilateral diplomacy, diplomacy for peace and security, the politics of diplomacy, experimentalist governance, and foreign policy; or to bring something new, for example the challenges of diplomacy in the fields of sport, climate change and health.

We also welcome proposals that address the themes of sustainability, development and innovation through approaches that combine diplomacy or international governance with other theoretical or methodological lenses.

We would like to hear from candidates whose background – academic and/or professional – offers potential for international collaboration, and who wish to join a dynamic and diverse campus-Loughborough London - that is research-intensive with an entrepreneurial emphasis. If you have a great idea for a PhD in this area, then we'd love to hear it: do get in touch. You will need to provide a research proposal of no less than 500 words that outlines your idea, its significance, and proposed academic contribution.

Research is at the heart of the Institute for Diplomacy and International Governance (IDIG). If you are interested in addressing complex, international issues and developing your professional research skills, then pursuing a PhD in IDIG could be for you. IDIG's academics offer research expertise and experience in numerous aspects of the study of diplomacy and international governance. They are extremely well-networked with professionals outside of academia in their respective fields. In some cases, especially where the proposed research is interdisciplinary in nature, the Institute can provide joint supervisory arrangements with colleagues from other Loughborough University London institutes and from research teams based at Loughborough University's East Midlands campus. Our aim is to create a vibrant, supportive, enthusiastic and forward-thinking research community where our academics and research students work closely together to examine solutions to real-world problems of diplomacy and international governance. Our London campus facilitates easy access to decision-makers and practitioners of all kinds, as well as to the rich academic sources the capital has to offer.

Primary supervisor: Professor Helen Drake

Deadline for applications is 16 May 2022.
