The examiners are to mark their assessment for the four main sections. Also, they must indicate the weighting for the four sections. The given grade is to be multiplied by the weighting (e.g. 25 % -> 0.25), and the points obtained for the main sections are to be added up to obtain the number of points equalling the final grade.

	0	1	2	3	4	5	Weighting %	Points
1. Research topic and purpose 2. Knowledge of the research
2. Use of theories as well as the use of literature Weight 20-35 %
3. Material, acquisition of material and analyses (=methods)
4. Research results and reporting Weight 20-35 %
