

3rd Workshop on Uralic Prosody: Program

Helsinki, 21 March 2019

9.00 – 9.05 Opening words

Keynote

9.05 - 9.55 Michael O'Dell: Characterizing Quantity Systems

Break

Session 1

10.00 - 10.30 Meelis Mihkla & Heete Sahkai: Stress, quantity and intensity in Estonian revisited

10.30 - 11.00 Katri Hiovain, Juraj Šimko: Duration patterns in Finnmark North Sámi Quantity

Break

Session 2

11.15 -11.45 Sophie Pokrovskaya, Daria Zhornik: Acoustic features of prosodic marking in Upper Lozva Mansi: a preliminary study

11.45 - 12.15 Polina Pleshak: Towards the search of Enets intonation patterns in Russian speech of Enets-Russian bilinguals

12.15 - 12.45 Katalin Mády, Réka Metzger, Nikolett Mus, Péter Rebrus, Uwe Reichel: The syntax and prosody of Tundra Nenets interrogatives. Theoretical and experimental approaches to dialectal variation and contact-induced change

Lunch

Session 3

14.30 - 15.00 Stina Ojala: Intensity markers in Finnish Sign Language

15.00 - 15.30 Natalia Kuznetsova: A mystery of Estonian word stress

15.30 - 16.00 Eva Liina Asu-Garcia, Pärtel Lippus: The prosody of compound words and noun phrases in Estonian: results from a pilot study

Break

Session 4

16.15 - 16.45 Fedor Rozhanskiy, Elena Markus: Quantitative characteristics of the Ingrian affricate ts

16.45 - 17.15 Pire Teras: Broken tone in South Estonian Leivu dialect

17.15 - 17.45 Sofoklis Kakourous: Clustering North Sámi dialects based on prosodic features