

INVITATION

Studying society through lifestyle regulation

25th May 2018, 13.00–16.00 (reception 16-17 in the same building)
Room 210, 2nd floor, Snellmaninkatu 12, the Swedish School of Social Science
Seminar language: mostly English

Registration: <https://elomake.helsinki.fi/lomakkeet/89295/lomake.html>

Finding the right amount and sort of support for people in enhancing their wellbeing and good health is at the heart of the current restructuring of the social and health field. This seminar presents in a snapshot-mode the latest research and discussions by the University of Helsinki Centre for addiction, control and governance (CEACG). The centre's research pertains to control and governance of health- and lifestyle-related questions.

PROGRAM

13.00 Welcome and short introduction of the CEACG
Matilda Hellman

SNAPSHOTS: GAMBLING POLICY AND SYSTEMS

13.15 Setting Limits: What is gambling regulation?
Pekka Sulkunen
Gambling-based funding of Finnish Civil Society Organizations
Veera Kankainen
How to study gambling, illegal gambling activities and gambling systems by historical means
Riitta Matilainen
Comparing gambling policy systems in Finland, Hungary and France
Sebastien Berret
The public image of the Finnish gambling policy: first results from a focus group study
Michael Egerer
The economy of gambling policy: dependencies and interests in a globalized context
Janne Nikkinen

SNAPSHOTS: CONTROL AND GOVERNANCE

14.30 Who's the crime victim? Legislative constructs and their implications
Riikka Kotanen
How is alcohol advertising in social media regulated and what are the consequences?
Anu Katainen
Politics and bodies of problem drug use
Riikka Perälä
How to study the brain disease model of addiction from a social science perspective?
Anna Alanko

15.50 Concluding remarks

16.00 Reception in the downstairs hall of the building

Please, register for the seminar at:

<https://elomake.helsinki.fi/lomakkeet/89295/lomake.html>

Visit our web site: <https://blogs.helsinki.fi/hu-ceacg/>

