

Intersubjectivities in Religious Recognition

Professor Risto Saarinen (University of Helsinki)

Helsinki Lectures on Intersubjectivity

7.4.2017 at 12.15–13.45 in the University of Helsinki Main building, room 10

Organized by the Finnish Centre of Excellence in Intersubjectivity in Interaction

www.intersubjectivity.fi

Abstract

This lecture reports on the activities of Helsinki CoE "Reason and Religious Recognition", focusing on issues of intersubjectivity. Such issues include 1) mutual recognition between different parties and 2) the interplay between trust and trustworthiness in our social life. Religious behavior often instantiates such issues in a paradigmatic manner.