

SURVEILLANCE, PRIVACY AND TRANSATLANTIC DATA FLOWS

Comparative Perspectives

24.11.2015, University of Helsinki, Yliopistonkatu 3, Porthania P673

Workshop Program

- 09:30 Coffee
- 10:00 Opening words
Tuomas Ojanen
- 10:15 Panel I: Rights Protection and Comparison
Chair: Eliška Pírková
Human Rights in the Digital Age: the US and Europe Compared Federico Fabbrini
Rights-based Review of Surveillance and Data Flow after Schrems
Tuomas Ojanen
- 11:30 Coffee Break
- 11:45 Panel II: Lawmaking and Regulation
Chair: Juha Lavapuro
Data Privacy Law Making: The Interaction between the Federal and State Levels in the EU and the US, Bilyana Petkova
Privacy and the CJEU, Samuli Miettinen
- 13:00 Lunch
- 14:00 Panel III: Data Transfer
Chair: Jens Kremer
Transborder transfer and security: the 'Schrems-Case', Niklas Vainio
International Data transfers before the GDPR and after Schrems
Tobias Bräutigam
- 15:15 Coffee Break

The event is organized by the Research Project 'Laws of Surveillance and Security: Constitutional Limits, Legislative Discourses and Transnational Influences' (LOSS-Project) funded by the Academy of Finland.
<http://blogs.helsinki.fi/loss-project/>
loss-project@helsinki.fi
@loss-project

PANEL DEBATE: WHAT PRIVACY LAWS DO WE NEED IN THE 21ST CENTURY?

24.11.2015, 15:45, University of Helsinki

Yliopistonkatu 3, Porthania, 1st floor, Room PIII

15:45
-17:30

Panel Debate
What privacy laws do we need in the 21st century?

Leena Kuusniemi, Senior Legal Counsel, Rovio Entertainment Ltd

Iiris Keino, Associate, Dittmar & Indrenius

Juha Lavapuro, Associate Professor, University of Tampere

Bilyana Petkova, Max Weber Fellow, European University Institute

Jyrki Kasvi, MP

Olli-Pekka Rantala, Director of Unit, Ministry of Transport and Communication

Jens Kremer, Moderation, LOSS-Project Helsinki

The event is organized by the Research Project 'Laws of Surveillance and Security: Constitutional Limits, Legislative Discourses and Transnational Influences' (LOSS-Project) funded by the Academy of Finland.
<http://blogs.helsinki.fi/loss-project/>
loss-project@helsinki.fi
@loss-project