

Contents

- 7 Introduction:
Education and the making of the Nordic welfare states
METTE BUCHARDT, PIRJO MARKKOLA AND HELI VALTONEN
- 31 Vocational education and the tensions of modernity
in a Nordic periphery
PAULI KETTUNEN
- 56 Citizenship and national identity:
Faith as an innovative force in elementary-school teaching from 1850 to 1920
ANETTE FAYE JACOBSEN
- 81 Religion, education and social cohesion:
Transformed and traveling Lutheranism in the emerging Nordic welfare states during the 1890's–1930's
METTE BUCHARDT
- 114 From religious instruction to school education:
Elementary education and the significance of ambulatory schools in rural Finland at the end of the 19th century
SOFIA KOTILAINEN
- 138 Teaching on the eve of public schooling: Demographic and social features of Icelandic schoolteachers in the beginning of the 20th century
ÓLÖF GARÐARSDÓTTIR

160

How did popular educators transform into experts of the Finnish welfare state from the 1860's to the 1960's?

HELI VALTONEN

186

Schooling, education and citizenship:
Finnish women entering the teaching profession in secondary education, 1900–1920's

MARIANNE JUNILA

206

Higher education for the people:
The School of Social Sciences and the modern citizen in Finland

MERVI KAARNINEN

229

The position of the School and University when placed between democratic tradition and totalitarian revolution:
The national socialist politics of knowledge and the educational elites in occupied Norway

JORUNN SEM FURE

259

List of Contributors