

Social Inclusion Core Research Group

Thursday 7th February 2013

10-13pm Cos 408, Cambridge

Reciprocity and the Construction of Well-being

Prof Maritta Törrönen (visiting scholar) University of Helsinki, Finland & Colleagues

Chairs: Dr. Claudia Schneider & Dr. Roxana Anghel

10:00 – 11:00 Introductions and main Lecture

Introduction to Reciprocal Relationships and the Construction of Well-being in the Finnish Context, Prof Maritta Törrönen

11:00 – 12:30 Workshops

(Hel 006) Participatory Research with Young People and the Construction of Well-being

Chairs: Prof Maritta Törrönen & Prof Riitta Vornanen, University of Eastern Finland

Maritta Törrönen & Riitta Vornanen: Young people leaving care – methodological challenges

(Hel 119) Immigrant Families: Acculturation and Well-being

Chairs: PhD student Minna Veistilä & M.A. student Teemu Vauhkonen

Teemu Vauhkonen: Reciprocity and Well-being of Families with a Russian Background in South-Eastern Finland

Minna Veistilä: Children with a Russian background and Their Well-being

(Lab 213) Youth and Agency in Vulnerable Life Situations

Chairs: Dr. Pirjo Korvela & PhD student Tarja Juvonen

Tarja Juvonen: Youth, Agency and the Possibility of Autonomy in the Context of Outreach Work

Pirjo Korvela: Young Unemployed People – How to find Employment According to Their Own Hopes

12.30 – 13:00 Where do we go from here and Closing (Hel 119)