

Public and Private in the Roman House workshop

Silver Center, 100 Washington Square East
5th floor, room 503 (entry on the Waverly Place side door)

Friday, October 12

1 pm

Keynote session: Leanne Bablitz: Living with the Law at Home: Visual, spatial and theoretical considerations

2.15 pm – 3.45 pm

Raffaella Criboire: Multifunctionality of spaces in a Roman House in Egypt

Rachael Goldman: Looking back in color: The Roman system of interiors and polychromacity

Adlai Lang: GIS approaches to visibility and circulation in the Roman houses of Pompeii

4.15 pm – 5.45 pm

Evan Proudfoot: Non Item Valvata: The Seasonality of Physical Boundaries in the Pompeian Domus

Samuli Simelius: Peristyle as a place of juridical activity and administration

Summer Trentin: Space in Transition: Public and Private in the Pompeian Domestic Peristyle

Saturday, October 13

9.15 am -10.45 am

Deborah Chatr Aryamontri: Public display of private life: the emperor's house

Harriet Fertik: Privacy and Power in Neronian Rome

Daira Nocera: The Domus Flavia and the Domus Augustana: an interpretation of public and private spaces in the imperial palace on the Palatine in Rome

11.15 am – 12.45 pm

Laura Nissinen: Public aspects of Roman cubicula

Jason Linn: Snuggling with your identity: Beds in Roman culture

Elisabetta Cova: Closets, Cupboards, Pantries, and Shelves: Storage in the Roman House

Lunch break

14.15 pm – 15.45 pm

Matthew Perry: The Paterfamilias and the Family Council in Roman Public Law

Jeffrey Tatum: Contio domestica: canvassing for voters at home

S.A. Speksnijder: Salutationes: the display of social relationships in the Roman domus

16.15 pm – 17.45 pm

Anne Hrychuk Kontokosta: Making the private public: from elite horti to imperial thermae

Lea Cline and Sandra Joshel: Public/private, slave/owner: Locating the Slave at Oplontis

Anna Anguissola: Social and intimate: the case of the 'urban villas' on the south-western slopes of Pompeii

Dinner after 6 pm